STUDENT TUITION REFUND

Policy Statement

It is the policy of the university to refund student tuition if notified of the class change, or dropped classes, within an appropriate period of time. Courses dropped prior to the first day of the semester will have 100% of the tuition charges cancelled. Courses dropped on or after the first day of the semester are subject to the attached refund schedules which govern the prorated cancellation of semester tuition charges in cases of program adjustment or withdrawal.

Reason for Policy

The purpose of this policy is to establish general guidelines for a tuition refund.

Policy

Tuition Refunds from Program Adjustments

- A. Program adjustments and withdrawals may affect a student's account. Courses dropped prior to the first day of the semester will have 100% of the tuition charges cancelled.
- B. Beginning with the 1st week of classes and lasting through the 4th week of classes, students who wish to add a course and drop a course as an even exchange may do so without financial loss if these transactions are for at least an equal number of credit hours.
- C. Courses dropped on or after the first day of the semester that result in a lower tuition charge are subject to the following refund schedules which govern the prorated cancellation of semester tuition charges in cases of program adjustment or withdrawal. The percentages outlined apply to the difference in the tuition charge.
- D. Certain programs or classes such as EMSE / NGA program (see Appendix A) or those with non-traditional semesters may have special refund schedules and students are encouraged to consult with their program office to determine if a special schedule applies. Please be advised that individual program adjustments may incur tuition charges and fees if they are not even exchanges.

Refunds for students who are recipients of Title IV financial aid are processed in accordance with federal regulation 34 CFR 668.22. The university is required by the Higher Education Act to recalculate the eligibility for federal Title IV student financial assistance for students who withdraw, drop out, are dismissed, or take a leave of absence prior to completing 60 % of the semester. Title IV funds include; Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG), Federal Work Study, Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Stafford Loans, Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loans, and Federal Direct Plus Loans. Please see the Return of Title IV Fund Policy for more information.

Refunds as a result of a payment via ACH or check other than federal aid or private loans cannot be refunded until 25 days after receipt by the university to allow the payment process to clear. Payments by federal aid, private loans from the lender, cash, credit card, wire transfer and certified funds can be refunded after one business day.

Credit balances due to a payment received via a wire transfer or credit card must be refunded to the originating bank account or applicable credit card.

The GWeb Info System Login system contains a module that allows the student to request a refund for any credit balance on his or her account.
