CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY
THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Title: Campus Community Director

BASIC FUNCTION AND RESPONSIBILITY

The Campus Community Director (CD) serves as a live-in professional responsible for ensuring that the daily living needs of residential students at the either the Foggy Bottom Campus or the Mount Vernon Campus are met. The CD works to ensure that a healthy and academic-oriented environment is maintained in order to foster living conditions which are comfortable and which promote students’ growth and personal development. The CD will instill a sense of community in his/her areas and ensure that hall initiatives for residential students are consistent with the mission and philosophy of the department. In addition to responsibilities relative to specific residential communities, the CD will have additional, specified responsibilities within the department and will supervise other residential staff and support staff.

ENTRY-LEVEL QUALIFICATIONS

A Master’s degree in a related field and residence life experience is recommended.

This is a full-time, 12-month live-in position.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT

Campus Community Directors are appointed for one academic year. CD’s wanting to work a second year will go through a reappointment process. CD’s are required to return to GW prior to the beginning of fall and spring semester to participate in staff development training and prepare residence halls for opening. CD’s will be required to sign a Live-In Agreement form indicating their understanding of departmental live-in expectations.

REMUNERATION

Salary is based on experience. Remuneration includes an assigned furnished University apartment.

The incumbent is entitled to University benefits that include participation in an insurance plan, TIAA/CREF and tuition benefits of six credits per semester (after completion is three months of employment).

The George Washington University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
